JERRY D. MCMORRIS

Chairman

The Colorado Rockies enter their 10th season under the guidance of Jerry D. McMorris. Although he has passed on the reigns of club president to Keli McGregor, McMorris will still serve as chairman for the 10th year in what has been a remarkable decade.

In the Rockies' first season of baseball in 1993, the club set major league records for highest attendance in a single game, night game, three-game series and single season. Colorado led the majors in attendance in each of its first seven seasons of existence (1993-99) and has exceeded the 3 million fan mark all nine years, the only team in major league history to do so.

McMorris was instrumental in making Coors Field a traditional throw-back ballpark built entirely for the great fans of the Rocky Mountain Region. In 1995, the first year of Coors, the Rockies eclipsed 11,000,000 in home attendance, faster than any team in history. With the clubs' key signings of Larry Walker, Bill Swift and bringing in Bret Saberhagen near the trade deadline, the Rockies became the first expansion team in major league history to participate in the postseason in fewer than eight seasons.

Throughout it all, the fans have been the top priority of McMorris and the Colorado Rockies.

"I look at the fans like customers," he says. "I've always believed that to be successful in business, you have to give your customers fair value and treat them with courtesy and respect. Over the years, I've seen that the No. 1 issue is people; that's true of every business I've been involved in."

Coors Field is continuously voted as one of the best stadiums in the game, despite new ballparks popping up nearly every year.

Writes Roger Thurow of The Wall Street Journal: "Once in the park, the customers, true to Mr. McMorris' philosophy, are relentlessly pampered. The aisles are wide; the concession stands unclogged, the bathrooms plentiful. And there is a battalion of 'greeters' deployed throughout the crowd. They sincerely say 'hello have a nice game' when you arrive at the park and 'goodbye, thanks for coming' when you leave."

Ryan McKee

McMorris' involvement in baseball began as a limited partner of the upstart franchise awarded to Denver on July 5, 1991, but it escalated to full-time duty when McMorris' group purchased controlling interests in the club on Sept. 2, 1992. On January 26, 1993, McMorris officially took over the role of Chairman, President and CEO. Less than a month later, he was in Tucson, Ariz., watching the first group of Rockies gather at Hi Corbett Field.

He presently chairs Major League Baseball's Legislative Committee and serves as vice chairman of the sport's Blue Ribbon Committee on Economics. He's also a member of Major League Baseball's Executive Council and Finance Committee.

A 1962 graduate of the University of Colorado's School of Business, he was named the 1993 Colorado Business Leader of the Year and the 1992 Master Entrepreneur of the Year. He's also heavily involved with the National Western Stock Show as vice chairman and works on the NWSS Executive Committee. He also owns Timnath Farms and the Red Mountain and Belvoir Ranches, with interests based in Northern Colorado and Wyoming. A member of the Institute of American Entrepreneurs, he's one of the state's most sought-after public speakers.

Jerry and his wife, Mary, reside in Timnath, Colo. They have two married children, Kelly and Scott, who have each added two children to the family: Kelly with husband Michael Dorvillier and their children Madeline and Blake, and Scott with wife Rachel and their children Samantha, Dade and their third expected early this year.

CHARLES K. MONFORT

Vice Chairman

An original Colorado Rockies founder, Charlie Monfort enters his 10th season as Vice Chairman of the club. He, along with Jerry McMorris, acquired the expansion team's controlling interests on Sept. 2, 1992.

Monfort's family has operated a major cattle feeding operation for three generations, and introduced fabrication of beef products in 1959. Based in Greeley, Colo., the company was operated by the Monforts since the 1930s. Charlie became president of Monfort International Sales Corp. in 1988 and under his guidance the corporation became one of the largest beef exporters in the world, and the leading exporter of beef products to Asia. Monfort opened company offices in Japan, Korea, Hong Kong, Taiwan, Beijing, Moscow, Mexico City and Rio. Those international ties were pivotal in the Rockies' ability to sign RHP Tsao Chin-Hui, the best prospect ever produced by Taiwan.

Monfort, 42, in 1996 became president of ConAgra Refrigerated Foods International, Inc., which consolidated his company with all of ConAgra's refrigerated foods international companies. In order to concentrate on his leadership role in the Rockies, Charlie resigned as president in late 1998.

Born Oct. 30, 1959, Charlie lives with his two children, Kenny and Ciara, in Greeley. He has a bachelor's degree in marketing and business management from the University of Utah ('82) and served as president of Kappa Sigma fraternity in college. He also sits on the Special Olympics Board of Directors.

Vice Chairman

Dick Monfort became a vice chairman of the Colorado Rockies Dec. 8, 1997, joining his brother in the club's leadership.

Monfort, 47, spent 25 years in the cattle business, primarily with his family's company. He became president of Monfort of Colorado, Inc. in 1987, then joined ConAgra Red Meats in 1991 as President & CEO. Today, Monfort owns the Hyatt Grand Champions Hotel in Palm Springs, Calif., the Hilltop Steak House in Boston, and interests in various commercial real estate ventures in Denver and Greeley, Colo. Monfort helped to launch the Montera Cattle Co. in 1996 and, one year later, the first Brett Favre Steak House in Milwaukee. He has since opened a second Brett Favre Steak House in Green Bay.

In addition, Monfort is the Chairman of the University of Northern Colorado Board of Trustees and the 2000 Chairman of United Way of Weld County. He also sits on several area boards, including the Board of Directors of Denver's University Hospital and the Colorado Economic Development Board.

Born April 27, 1954, the Colorado native lives in Greeley with his wife Christine and their three children. A 1976 graduate of the University of Northern Colorado, Dick has a bachelor's degree in business management.

KELI S. MCGREGOR

President

Denver native and eight-year veteran of the Rockies organization, Keli McGregor, begins his first season as club president, being named to that role on October 18, 2001.

McGregor, 40, spent the last four years as the clubs' Executive Vice President, Business Operations, being promoted to that position in 1998. Overall, the 2001 season was his sixth year of guiding the organization's business operations.

"Our people are our greatest resources," Rockies Chairman Jerry McMorris said. "The timing is perfect to create our own continuity within the Rockies organization and the Rocky Mountain Region. Keli's experience and leadership skills make him the right choice at the right time."

McGregor began working with the Rockies in October of 1993 as senior director of operations and was then promoted to senior vice president and then executive vice president. For eight years, he has built the Rockies' business around the precedent of outstanding customer service.

He joined the Rockies after a four-year stint as an associate athletic director at the University of Arkansas. The Razorbacks won 11 national championships in that time span.

Prior to that, he coached football at the University of Florida for two seasons, 1988-89. While at Florida, he also earned his master's degree in Education with an athletic administration emphasis.

McGregor currently sits on the board of the Colorado chapter of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. And, in memory of his friend Michael McMorris, who lost his life to cystic fibrosis before the 1996 season, McGregor co-founded the Reaching Out to Youth (ROY) Foundation to assist the battle against the disease.

A two-time All-American tight end at Colorado State, McGregor was drafted by the Broncos in the fourth round (110th overall) of the 1985 NFL draft. He played for Denver, Indianapolis and Seattle before retiring. Keli still holds CSU's single-season reception record (69) and stands third on the all-time reception list with 153. He was voted to the school's All-Century Team in 1992 and gained membership into the CSU's Hall of Fame in 1996.

Born Jan. 23, 1962 in Primgahr, Iowa, Keli and his wife, Lori, live in Golden, Colo., and have four children: daughters Jordan, Taylor and Landri and son Logan.

Denver Broncos/Clarkson & Associates

After attending games at Mile High for more than 20 years, McGregor played one season (1985) for the Denver Broncos.

Daniel J. O'Dowd

Executive Vice President, General Manager

Embarking on his third season as Executive Vice President, General Manager, Dan O'Dowd is continuing to build the Rockies for the future, at the plate and more importantly on the mound.

After signing two of baseball's top free agent pitchers in December of 2000, O'Dowd, 42, once again continued to boost the staff in 2001. By the end of the season, the Rockies rotation featured the young arms of Shawn Chacon and Jason Jennings, as well as former 17-game winner Scott Elarton, whom O'Dowd snagged at the trade deadline.

This past offseason, O'Dowd injected new life into the bullpen, signing veteran relievers Todd Jones and Rick White as well acquiring three young hurlers from the AL West Champion Mariners and another young lefty, Dennys Reyes from Cincinnati.

He has also revamped the infield with young stars. Perhaps Colorado's best hope for the future emerged at the end of the year, when O'Dowd traded to make room for the talented Jose Ortiz and Juan Uribe. The two, along with Todd Helton, make the Rox infield a young, powerful hitting unit.

One of the youngest GMs in the business, O'Dowd made 10 in-season trades in 2001, and all-in-all has made 35 deals since being hired on Sept. 20, 1999.

But deals have been in the blueprints since Day One. Following the 1999 World Series, the Rockies added 15 players to the major league roster. O'Dowd made five trades involving 23 players, including the first four-team transaction since 1985. Only six players remained on Colorado's 25-man Opening Day rosters between 1999 to 2000, believed to be the largest turnover in baseball history.

Guiding the most active front office in the majors, O'Dowd made some redirections during the 2000 season. He completed seven more trades, touching 22 players, including the team's 2000 Pitcher of the Year Gabe White, and Todd Hollandsworth. In his first 16 months on the job, O'Dowd completed 16 trades involving 56 players.

Prior to joining the Rockies, O'Dowd served the Indians front office for 11 years, from 1988-98, most recently as the Vice President of Baseball Operations and Assistant General Manager. During his tenure in Cleveland, the Indians won four straight AL Central pennants (1995-98) and advanced to the World Series in 1995 and 1997. He spent his first five seasons (1988-92) as Cleveland's Director of Player Development, cultivating future All-Stars, such as Charles Nagy, Manny Ramirez, Jeff Shaw and Jim Thome. Indians president Hank Peters promoted O'Dowd after Baseball America named Cleveland its 1992 Organization of the Year. O'Dowd spent six seasons as Assistant GM and directly oversaw the player development and scouting departments. From 1988-92, O'Dowd oversaw the Colorado Springs Sky Sox, Cleveland's Triple-A Pacific Coast League affiliate. During that period, the farm team advanced to the PCL playoffs four straight seasons (1989-92) and won the league championship in 1992.

Before joining the Indians, O'Dowd worked five years for the Orioles. He left Baltimore after two and-a-half seasons as the assistant director of player development and scouting. O'Dowd also worked in Baltimore's broadcasting and marketing departments.

Born Sept. 6, 1959, Dan and his wife, Jackie, have three children and make their home in Greenwood Village. He is a graduate of Rollins College in Winter Park, Fla.

As Sr. Vice President, he oversees corporate sales, publications, broadcasting, community affairs, merchandising, promotions, special events as well as ballpark operations and information systems.

Feasel joined the Rockies before the 1996 season after serving as a division director of sales and marketing for Coca-Cola Enterprises from 1988-95.

A 1981 graduate of Abilene Christian, Feasel played three seasons for the USFL's Denver Gold. He also played for the Green Bay Packers and San Diego Chargers.

In the off-seasons throughout his football career, he worked in the real estate and automotive industries, and also taught school. He has chaired several organizations, including Grocery Sales Managers of Colorado and the Career Tech Prep. Committee. He's also served as a chairman of Colorado community colleges and their occupational education system, and as past president of the Colorado chapter of the NFL Alumni Association. Greg and his wife, Lynn, reside in Denver.

Prior to joining the club, Hal was a partner with the public accounting firm of Coopers & Lybrand, for 19 years from 1975-93, where he specialized in taxation.

Roth holds a bachelor's degree from Albion College, an M.B.A. and J.D. from the University of Denver and an L.L.M (in taxation) from New York University. He is also a certified public accountant.

Hal and his wife, Connie, and sons, Reilly (20, who attends the University of Arizona) and Rory (18, who attends Colorado State), reside in Englewood. He currently serves on the board of the Colorado Neurological Institute, and has served on the boards of the Colorado Children's Chorale and Seniors, Inc.

A Michigan native, Hal likes to play golf and climb Colorado's 14,000-foot peaks during the summer. In the winter, he can be found on the state's ski slopes.

Kevin Kahn

Vice President — Ballpark Operations

Kevin Kahn begins his ninth season with the Rockies and first as Vice President, being named to that position on Nov. 13, 2001.

He will continue to direct all of the ballpark operations at Coors Field, including the club's partnership with Aramark, the food service provider at Coors.

Kahn, 37, spent the last five years as Senior Director of Coors Field Operations. He was the Director of Stadium Services his first three seasons.

Overall, Kahn has been working in professional baseball for 21 years, as he previously worked for the Oakland Athletics from 1981 to 1993. He started as an operations assistant and was then named Director of Stadium Operations in 1987. He spent his last seven seasons with the A's in that capacity, including three consecutive World Series appearances (1988-90) and the 1987 All-Star game.

The Oakland, Calif., native graduated from Bishop O'Dowd high school. He received his bachelor's degree in Business Administration from California State-University Hayward.

He and his wife Stephanie have two children, Haley (2) and Kyle who was born this past October. Kevin currently serves on the Board of Directors for the Police Activities League of Denver.

Michael J. Kent

Vice President— Finance

One of the original members of the officer roster, Michael Kent joined the Rockies in January, 1992, and enters his 11th year with the club.

Kent, 44, is in contact with every department in the organization, assisting them in financial planning and budgeting. He also is responsible for financial reporting, cash management, club insurance and benefits.

Michael came to Colorado after a decade with the Philadelphia Phillies (1982-91). He served as controller at the time of his move West. Prior to joining the Phillies, he worked in the Long Island, N.Y. office of Deloitte Haskins & Sells, providing accounting services to small and growing businesses.

He and his wife, Mary, have four children: Jonathan, Laura and Timothy and Bryan. The family resides in Highlands Ranch. Kent attended Villanova University and graduated with a degree in accounting in 1979.

Sue Ann McClaren

Vice President— Ticket Operations & Sales

Sue Ann McClaren joined the Rockies in the fall of 1992 and enters her 10th season with the club, her 25th year in Major League Baseball.

McClaren oversees one of baseball's busiest ticket departments, which has sold more seats for one game and one season than any big-league club in history. On Dec. 1, 1995, with the addition of vice president to her title, she became the Colorado Rockies first female officer.

Sue Ann joined Colorado after a 15 years with the St. Louis Cardinals, who won three NL pennants and one World Series during that time. She joined the Cardinals in their sales department, then worked her way up to director of ticket sales, before departing for the expansion Rockies. A 1977 graduate of William Woods College in Fulton, Mo., McClaren is single and lives in Denver.

Josh Byrnes

Sr. Director — Baseball Operations, Asst. GM

Josh Byrnes joined the Rockies Sept. 30, 1999 and enters his third season with the club, his ninth in a major league front office.

At the time of his hiring, Byrnes, 31, was the youngest assistant general manager in the National League, and second-youngest in the majors. Only Oakland's Paul DePodesta, 29, was younger. The two began their careers with the Indians.

Josh worked six seasons for Cleveland, beginning as a baseball operations intern in 1994. Cleveland hired him full-time (baseball operations assistant) before the 1995 season, which culminated in the club's first pennant since 1954, and first of five straight division titles. The team promoted him to assistant scouting director in October, 1996. Then, after the 1998 June draft, he became one of the youngest scouting directors in major league history at age 27.

Born June 23, 1970 in Washington D.C., Byrnes graduated from Haverford College, near Philadelphia, where he played four seasons for the Fords, establishing school records in career home runs and RBI. Josh and his wife, Charity, reside in Denver.

Bill Geivett

Director — Player Personnel

Bill Geivett begins his second season with Colorado and his 16th in professional baseball. He joined the Rockies Nov. 10, 2000.

Geivett, 38, assists Dan O'Dowd with major league player and roster evaluations and also has responsibilities in the player development and scouting areas.

He came to Colorado from the Los Angeles Dodgers. Most recently the team's assistant general manager (2000), he'd worked in the Dodgers' front office since September, 1998. Prior to that, he worked for the Tampa Bay Devil Rays as special assistant to the general manager. With Tampa Bay, he chartered ties between the team and Australia, the Far East and Latin America. From 1994-96, he headed the Montreal farm system, which garnered the coveted Topps Organization of the Year honors in 1996. He broke into the major leagues with the New York Yankees as a scout and organizational instructor in 1991.

Geivett returned to professional ball in 1991 after coaching at Loyola Marymount (1989) and Long Beach State (1990).

The California Angels' 13th-round selection in the 1985 June draft, Geivett played professionally four seasons. He sustained a career-ending knee injury while running out a ground ball with Midland (AA) in 1988. As a collegian, the third baseman received All-America accolades at the University of California-Santa Barbara. He also attended Sacramento City College and was drafted four times overall during the early 1980s.

Born July 25, 1963, Geivett has a master's in education from Azusa Pacific University (1991). He and his wife, Bonnie, make their home in Yorba Linda, Calif., with their children Rachel (6) and Sam (4).

Michael Hill

Director — Player Development

Michael Hill joined the Colorado organization Oct. 11, 1999. He enters his 10th season in the professional game.

Hill, 31, came to Coors Field from the Tampa Bay Devil Rays, where he had worked since August, 1995, all four seasons as an assistant in the scouting and player development departments.

A 1993 graduate of Harvard University, Hill was elected senior class marshal (the equivalent to president), while starring as the football team's top rusher and the baseball team's captain. The Texas Rangers made him their 31st selection in the 1993 June draft, and he played two seasons (1993-94) in the Rangers system and one year (1995) in the Cincinnati organization before joining the Devil Rays.

Baseball America in 1999 named Hill as one of 10 people in baseball whose prominence will increase significantly in the first decade of the new century. It quoted strong sources who said he will turn into a successful general manager before the 2010 season.

A Cincinnati native, he starred in football, baseball and basketball at the city's Country Day School. Michael also shares several ties with Buddy Bell's family. At Country Day, Hill played against Moeller and David Bell during the spring; the two then played on the same Connie Mack team, the Midland Redskins, that won a world series in 1989. Twenty years earlier in 1969, Buddy Bell led his Cincinnati Connie Mack team to a world series title. Hill and Mike Bell were selected by the Rangers in the 1993 June draft. And, after his playing career, Hill scouted Ricky Bell for the Tampa Bay Devil Rays.

Born March 25, 1971, Michael is single and lives in Denver.

He worked for the Major League Baseball Scouting Bureau from 1987-88, and launched his scouting career as an associate with the Reds (1982-84). All told, he has 16 years of scouting experience.

★ The Rockies Fans ★

Most people know that Rockies fans own several attendance records. But long before the team took the field, the fans were the reason the NL Expansion Committee selected Colorado in the first place. Baseball did not consider Colorado the leading candidate until late in the 1990-91 process; specifically, after the Colorado franchise received more than 21,000 season ticket deposits in two months. And after voters approved a measure to fund Coors Field, Denver and its fans outdistanced every other city. In 1999, Rockies fans became the first in major league annals to lead baseball in attendance while their team finished in last place.

BUDDY BELL 25

★ MANAGER ★

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 220 Age: 50 (51 on Aug. 27)
Born: Aug. 27, 1951 in Pittsburgh, Pa.
Residence: Thornton, Colo.
Major League Managing Experience: Five seasons
Contract: Third year of a three-year contract, through 2002

Managerial Career: Colorado named Buddy Bell the third manager in franchise history, Oct. 20, 1999. Entering his third season, Bell has a two-year record of 155-169 (.478). Prior to joining the Rockies, he guided the Tigers for three seasons, 1996-98. Bell became the 30th skipper in Tigers annals, replacing Sparky Anderson, who'd managed the club since 1979. He finished second in the 1997 AL Manager of the Year voting after guiding the team to a 26-game improvement, the best year-to-year difference in the American League during the 1990s. Bell has replaced two managers, Anderson and Jim Leyland, who combined to win 3,263 games, eight division pennants and four World Series titles.

2001 — In Bell's sophomore year at the helm, the Rockies finished fifth in the NL West with a 73-89 record. After a tough midseason in which the club lost 23-of-27 games and 35-of-45, the Rox did bounce back to post winning months in August (14-13) and September (12-11) and were victorious in 23 of their last 42 games. Bell's team was again amongst the best defensive teams in the National League, finishing third in team fielding percentage (.984). Bell was ejected eight times in 2001, running his total as a Rockie to 17 ejections. Offensively, the 2001 Rockies set a major league single-season record with 2,748 total bases. The club also set an NL record for most extra-base hits in a season (598) and became the first club in NL history to score 900 runs in three consecutive seasons.

2000 — Bell managed the largest spring training squad in baseball, 71 players. Then, on Opening Day, the team had only six players who began the 1999 season with the Rockies, believed to be the largest year-to-year Opening Day turnover in big-league history. Only 12 of the 25 players who opened the season with Colorado were in Atlanta to close the year, and just three of the team's Opening Day starters played the entire season for the Rockies. And, by year's end, he'd managed a franchise-record 49 players. Despite those numbers, Bell guided the Rockies to a 10-game improvement, the fourth-best in the NL, and the team's first winning record (82-80) since 1997. After a 19-2 win over Arizona June 18, the Rockies held sole possession of first place for the first time since July 25, 1996. On July 3, after taking three of four in San Diego, the team reached first again, tying a franchise record by surging 12 games above .500. Then, the Rockies weathered an 11-game losing streak, July 4-17. Bell led the NL in ejections with nine and Frank Robinson suspended him for two games, for excessive arguing Aug. 22 (he served the suspension at Philadelphia, Aug. 28-29). Statistically, his team scored 968 runs, the most in the NL since 1930, despite finishing 15th in home runs (161). In the field, his defenders lost the league fielding title by .00006, but still posted the fourth highest percentage in NL history, .98461. His pitching staff improved its ERA by 0.75 runs, compared to 1999, and his bullpen led the league with 36 wins. The team also tied for the NL lead with 45 come-from-behind wins.

1998 — The Tigers lost 17 of their first 21 and never recovered. The club suffered a few key injuries, including starting shortstop Deivi Cruz. Bell's Opening Day roster was one of the four youngest in the majors. Detroit rebounded to go 15-12 in May, standing only 9.5 behind the first-place Indians at month's end, but couldn't stay in the race into the summer. Bell departed September 1.

1997 — Detroit won 26 more games than the previous year, the AL's largest improvement since 1988-89 and the second-largest improvement in Tiger history, which dates to 1901. Plus, the jump in winning percentage (.327 to .488) was the 13th largest in league annals. The Baseball Writers recognized that effort and voted him runner-up to Manager of the Year Davey Johnson. Detroit established a franchise-record and AL-leading .985 fielding percentage, becoming the first major league club ever to go from last (.978 in 1996) to first in club fielding. Bell's players committed fewer errors and played fewer errorless games than any season in Detroit history. His pitching staff improved its ERA by 1.82 runs, the largest such improvement in AL history (surpassing the 1954 mark, also held by Detroit, 1.54) and the third largest year-to-year drop in major league records. The Tigers went 8-4 in extra-inning affairs, the second-best winning percentage in the league. And, three players (Tony Clark, Travis Fryman and Bobby Higginson) drove in 100 runs, the first Tiger club to do that since 1950 (Vic Wertz, Hoot Evers and George Kell).

1996 — Detroit won eight of its first 15 and stood tied for second, three and-a-half games out of first on April 17. The Tigers then lost 34 of their next 39 to drop out of contention. Bell used a club-record 27 pitchers and 53 players, the most by a Detroit manager since Hughie Jennings used 53 in 1912. His players also hit a club-record 104 home runs away from Tiger Stadium, but his pitchers allowed a major league record 241 homers. Bell notched his first managerial win in his second game, April 2 at the Metrodome.

Coaching Career — Bell coached for six seasons before earning the Tigers managerial post in 1996. His first position after retiring his 18-year major league playing career was with Cleveland, the team that drafted him in 1969. In 1990 he served as the Indians' roving minor league hitting instructor, a post given him by current Rockies general manager Dan O'Dowd, then the Tribe's farm director. Bell then moved to the Chicago White Sox, and served three seasons (1991-93) as director of minor league instruction. Mike Hargrove then brought him back to Cleveland and gave Bell the unique title of infield coach. He coached for two seasons in Cleveland (1994-95). In 1995, he helped the Indians to the World Series and briefly coached his son, David, in his first ML season.

Front Office Experience — Cincinnati hired Bell in September, 1998, as minor league field coordinator. He held that position until Aug. 5, 1999, when the club promoted him to director of player development.

Playing Career Highlights — Bell played 21 seasons, 18 at the big-league level. He participated in 2,405 games for the Indians, Rangers, Reds and Astros. A five-time all-star, he led league third basemen in fielding three times: 1980 (.981), 1982 (.976) and 1987 (.979). Bell also won six consecutive Rawlings Gold Gloves (1979-84); only Brooks Robinson (16) has won more at third base in AL history. He hit .279 over his 18 seasons with 201 career homers and 1,106 RBI. He had homered in every major league park at the time of his retirement in 1989.

In Cleveland — The Indians' 16th-round selection in the 1969 draft, Bell spent only two-and-a-half seasons in the minors before his first and only major league promotion. After the American Association named him Rookie of the Year in 1971, the Indians made room on their roster the next spring by shifting him to outfield. Tribe manager Ken Aspromonte wrote Bell, a 20-year-old, into his Opening Day lineup, batting seventh in right field, April 15, 1972; he went 0-for-3 against Brewers starter Bill Parsons in his big-league debut at Municipal Stadium. One week later, at home, Bell hit his first major league homer, a grand slam off Baltimore's Ed Watt. Both Topps and Baseball Digest named him to their all-rookie teams, but Boston's Carlton Fisk ran away with Rookie of the Year honors. The next season, 1973, Bell moved back to his natural third-base position, replacing Graig Nettles, traded during the winter to the Yankees. Bell responded by earning his first all-star appearance, and first of five career invitations. In Cleveland, he batted .274 (1016-for-3712) with 64 homers and 285 RBI over his first seven big-league seasons.

In Texas —The Indians dealt him to Texas for INF Toby Harrah after the 1978 campaign and Bell became one of the most popular players in Rangers history. In his first of two stints in Texas, Bell hit .295 (1045-for-3541) with 87 homers and 496 RBI in 924 games. He made four more all-star appearances and earned six consecutive Rawlings Gold Gloves his first six seasons in Arlington (1979-84). Texas named him its Player of the Year three times (1979, 1981-82), more than any player in franchise history except Juan Gonzalez (five). In 1979, he led the club with 162 games, 670 at-bats, 200 hits and 42 doubles, all Rangers single-season records at the time, while tying for the league lead with 16 game-winning RBI. In 1980, Bell built a career-high 21-game hitting streak. On April 10, 1992, he tied a major-league record by homering twice on Opening Day, in his old park at Cleveland. In 1984, he finished fourth in the AL with a .315 average. He posted his 2,000th hit April 26, 1985 vs. Toronto. Later that summer, the Rangers traded him to Cincinnati for OF Duane Walker and RHP Jeff Russell. He returned to Texas to finish his career, signing as a free-agent before the '89 season.

In Cincinnati — In four full seasons with his hometown Reds, from July 1985 to June 1988, Bell batted .266 (370-for-1391) with 43 homers and 184 RBI in 386 games. Bell arrived in Cincinnati months before his manager, Pete Rose, broke Ty Cobb's career hit record (Rose started Bell at third base, batting fifth, in the historic contest). The following season, his first full NL campaign, he hit a career-high 20 homers. Bell's 1997 season included his 1,000th RBI (April 18 vs. Houston), an NL-leading .979 fielding percentage at third base, and only seven errors, which would've set the NL record had he played eight more games to reach the minimum qualification, 150. In June, 1988, the Reds dealt him to Houston for a PTBN (Carl Grovom).

In Houston — In only three and-a-half months with the Astros (the last half of 1988), he hit seven homers to tie for third on the club. He led the team with 18 RBI in July and his one RBI every two games was the club's second-best ratio, behind Glenn Davis (1:1.54).

Personal — David Gus (Buddy) Bell...he and his wife, Gloria, have five children: David (29), Mike (26), Ricky (22), Kristi (19) and Traci (16)...born in Pittsburgh, his family moved to Cincinnati after his father was traded from the Pirates to the Reds before the '53 season...his father, Gus, played for the Pirates, Reds, Mets and Braves from 1950-64. Like his son, the elder Bell also led his league in fielding, in both 1958 and '59 with the Reds...Each of Buddy's three sons plays professionally...David has seven years of big league experience with Cleveland, St. Louis and Seattle. Mike, Texas' compensation selection in the 1993 June draft, is in camp with the Rockies, and Ricky, the Dodgers' third-round selection in the 1997 June draft, continues to work in the Dodgers system. A 1969 graduate of Cincinnati's Moeller High School, Buddy was the first of seven prospects from that school to advance to the major leagues (Ken Griffey, Jr., Barry Larkin, Bill Long and Len Matuszek, as well as Bell's three sons)...He attended Xavier University and Miami of Ohio...The Texas Baseball Hall of Fame inducted him in 1988...Also in 1988 he won the Lou Gehrig Memorial Award, presented by Phi Delta Theta fraternity...his Team USA earned the silver medal at the 1999 Pan Am games

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 225 Age: 39

Born: Nov. 27, 1962 in Elyria, Ohio

Residence: Denver, Colo.

Major League Coaching Experience: 12 seasons

The 2002 Season: Brad Andress joined the Rockies coaching staff Nov. 1, 1999 and enters his third season with the club, his 13th in major league baseball. Andress has three roles with the club. As strength coach, he monitors the players' strength and conditioning programs, both during the year and in the off-season. In addition to his strength and conditioning work, Andress is a member of Buddy Bell's coaching staff. He gives the Rockies a bonus they'd previously never had on a major league staff: a coach who throws batting practice left-handed. He also serves as quality control administrator, handling all of Buddy Bell's administrative duties and assisting the players with mental preparation and outlook.

Coaching Experience: Andress joined the Rockies from the Detroit Tigers, where he served 10 seasons (1990-99) in a similar strength and conditioning capacity. From 1996-98, he worked under his current manager, Buddy Bell. While in the Motor City, Brad designed and implemented conditioning programs for not only the Tigers' major league players, but also their organizational players. He also assisted the Tigers as they upgraded their computer system. Before moving to Detroit, he worked four years as the strength/conditioning coach in the University of Michigan's Athletic Department. While in Ann Arbor, he conditioned the Wolverines' 1989 NCAA Men's Basketball National Champions.

Athletic Playing Career: An offensive guard at Penn State, Brad played four seasons under Coach Joe Paterno, including 1982, when the Nittany Lions won the national championship by defeating Georgia in the Sugar Bowl. Before college, he earned three letters in baseball at Elyria (Ohio) High School.

Personal: Brad and his wife, Inger, have five children: Hanna (11), Ingrid (10), Lars (9), Bria (6) and Britta (5). He has a bachelor's degree in exercise physiology from Penn State, and a master's in exercise physiology from the University of Michigan.

NILSON ROBLEDO

Bullpen Catcher

Nilson Robledo became the third bullpen catcher in club history, Feb. 3, 2000, following Mike Shepard (1993-94) and Todd Maulding (1995-99).

Robledo, 33, spent seven seasons (1990-96) in the Chicago White Sox system, playing mostly first base. In 1995, he set franchise records at Single-A South Bend with 108 RBI, 153 hits, 537 at-bats and 135 games played. That year, his hits and RBI led the Midwest League, while his 20 homers and 243 total bases ranked third. His 108 RBI were the third most in all of minor league ball. The previous year, 1994, at South Bend, he set a franchise record with a .445 slugging percentage. He's also played in the Gulf Coast and Florida State leagues. His career peaked at Triple-A in 1996.

Born Nov. 3, 1968 in Entrega, Panama, Nilson signed with the White Sox as a non-drafted free agent in 1989. Rockies skipper Buddy Bell came to know Robledo in the early 1990s, when Bell served as the system's director of minor league instruction (1991-93). Nilson still makes his home in Entrega with his wife, Heather, and two sons, Nelson and Alexa...his brother, Nelson, plays in the Rockies organization.

Major League Coaching Experience: Seven seasons

The 2002 Season: Toby Harrah embarks on his 35th season in pro ball, his third with the Rockies. He has coached or managed each year since his retirement in 1986. Colorado marks the third organization in which he's worked with Buddy Bell, including Detroit and Cincinnati.

Managerial Career: Harrah has spent all or parts of four years as a skipper, including the last half of the 1992 season as interim manager of the Rangers, succeeding Bobby Valentine. Texas went 32-44 under Harrah, who took over July 9. Toby also assumed managerial duty for the Rockies Aug. 28-29, 2000, while Bell served a two-game suspension; the Rockies went 1-1 at Philadelphia, although by rule the games counted in Bell's managerial record. Harrah made his mark in 1995, at the helm of the Mets AAA club, Norfolk. That season, the International League Manager of the Year guided the Tides to the league's best record (86-56), a division flag and an appearance in the circuit championship. Harrah's first two seasons after retirement were at the reins of Oklahoma City, the Rangers' Triple-A club.

Coaching Experience: After Buddy Bell departed to manage Detroit, Harrah replaced him on the Cleveland staff (1996). Toby also coached under Valentine in Texas, and has five years experience as an organizational hitting instructor with the Rangers (1993-94), Tigers (1997-98) and Reds (1999). His first year on the Rangers major league staff, 1989, was spent with Bell, who retired during that season.

Playing Career: The former third baseman spent 17 seasons in the majors. He broke into the big-leagues as a shortstop, making his major league debut with Washington in 1969. After moving with the franchise to Texas, he posted 20 homers on three occasions. In '72, he earned his first all-star invitation then returned to the midsummer classic twice more (1976 and 1982). On Dec. 8, 1978, the Rangers traded him to the Indians in exchange for Buddy Bell. Toby's five seasons with the Tribe produced a .281 average, 70 homers and 324 RBI. After one season with the Yankees, Harrah returned to finish his career in Texas. He remains the career franchise leader in walks (668) and only Jim Sundberg and Juan Gonzalez have played more games in a Rangers uniform.

Major League Coaching Experience: Five seasons

The 2002 season: The only Rockies hitting instructor to coach for more than one season, Hurdle enters his sixth year tutoring Colorado's big-league hitters, his ninth overall year with the organization, and 28th in professional baseball.

Managing/Coaching Experience: Hurdle, who doubled as the club's first-base coach from 1997-98, is one of the only coaches in major league history to remain on a staff through two managerial changes. He made his major-league debut Sept. 18, 1977 and kicked off a 10-year big-league career, which included five seasons in Kansas City and tours with Cincinnati, New York (NL) and St. Louis...Baseball Digest and Topps named him to their 1978 All-Rookie squads. In 1980, his best overall season, he batted .294 with 10 homers and 60 RBI on the Royals' AL championship club...during the 1980 World Series against the Phillies, he hit .417 (5-for-12). Hurdle spent the majority of his time in the outfield, but also worked at the corner infield spots and behind the plate.

FRED KENDALL 18

★ BULLPEN COACH ★
★ CATCHING INSTRUCTOR ★

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 210 Age: 53
Born: Jan. 31, 1949 in Torrance, Calif.
Residence: Torrance, Calif.
Major League Coaching Experience: Five seasons

The 2002 season: Fred Kendall enters his third season on the Rockies coaching staff. He joined the Rockies from the Cincinnati Reds, where he served as a roving catching instructor during the 1999 season. Like Rich Donnelly and Toby Harrah, Kendall's first year in pro ball was 1967. Kendall is the first catching instructor in Rockies history.

Managing/Coaching Experience: Kendall makes his second appearance on a major league staff and begins his sixth season in that capacity. From 1996-98, he was Buddy Bell's bullpen coach with the Detroit Tigers. He is the only Colorado coach who previously worked under Bell at the major league level. Before his stint in Detroit, Fred managed four seasons in the White Sox system. He guided Utica (1992) and Hickory (1994) to their respective postseasons. During that '94 season, Hickory went 46-17 after July 1, en route to the White Sox organization's best record.

Playing Career: The former catcher spent 12 seasons in the majors with the Padres, Indians and Red Sox. He made his major league debut Sept. 8, 1969, only three days after a prospective shortstop named Toby Harrah debuted with the Washington Senators in the other league. Fred's best overall season came in 1973, when he earned San Diego's MVP honors from the local chapter of the baseball writers. Dave Garcia, who joins Kendall on the Rockies staff, coached for the Padres during Fred's first years in the majors. In 1976, he led NL catchers in games (146) and only Johnny Bench (.997) finished with a higher fielding percentage than Fred (.994). For two seasons (1975-76), he caught every game for San Diego ace Randy Jones, who won 42 games during the period. The hurler in '75 led the NL with a 2.24 ERA and earned the Cy Young in 1976, when he led the league with 22 wins, 25 CG and 315.0 IP. Kendall and Bell were teammates with the 1977 Cleveland Indians, along with Duane Kuiper and Dennis Eckersley. After a brief tour in the American League, Kendall returned to San Diego to finish his career.

Personal: Fred Lyn Kendall...he and his wife, Patricia, have three children: Michael (30), Jason (27) and Kathy (23)...Jason, the starting catcher for the Pittsburgh Pirates the last six seasons and 1992 first-round draft pick, has already earned two all-star appearances.

Razum's peers named him the 1998 Turf/Grass Professional of the Year, an award presented by the Rocky Mountain Turf/Grass Association. He won the honor partly because of an incredible star design he and his staff cut into the grass during the '98 All-Star Game.

Joining the Rockies in October, 1994, "Razz" served six years at the reins of the Athletics' grounds crew at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum, where players voted his surface the best in the AL for three straight seasons (1992-94). Prior to that, he spent seven years in charge of spring surfaces for Oakland (1984-89) and the Angels (1982-84). His groundskeeping career began in 1978 at old Municipal Stadium in his native Cleveland.

1999: Spent the entire season at Salem (A) of the Carolina League...the league hit only .251 against Shawn, and of 316 batters faced, he gave up only three home runs...dominated left-handed hitters, allowing only two extra-base hits all season (both doubles) and holding them to a .235 mark (23-for-98)...right-handers hit .260 off him...Carolina League leadoff batters struggled even more; they hit .169 (11-for-65).

1998: Chacon struggled to find his groove over the season's first two months, before encountering injury...on May 26 in his 10th start, Chacon strained his elbow's ulnar collateral ligament, and missed the next two months...he returned on July 19, but the elbow flared up again seven days later...Colorado then flew him home in order to rest the elbow before Arizona Instructional League play.

SELECTED in the first round (16th overall) of the 1999 June draft.

CAREER: Called-up in late August of 2001, Jennings had one of the best starts to a career in Rockies history, including his major league debut in which he was the first player in MLB history to toss a complete-game shutout and hit a homer...Jason is in his second major league camp, as he went in 2000 as a non-roster invitee...this is his fourth season in professional baseball as the former Baylor All-American has climbed up the ladder in the Rockies system with stops at every level...he was the fourth first rounder to be drafted by Colorado and make his debut in a Rockies uniform...recently rated by Baseball America as the seventh best prospect in the system.

2001: After starting the year at Carolina (AA), Jennings was bumped up to Triple A Colorado Springs in late April...had his AAA contract purchased by the Rockies on Aug. 23, the day he would take the mound and make history at Shea Stadium...in that Aug. 23 debut, he fired a complete-game, five-hit shutout with four walks and eight strikeouts...was threatened just once in the second inning, with runners on first and third with one out...Jason got himself out of the jam, starting a 1-6-3 inning-ending double play...along with his shutout, he also went 3-for-5 at the plate with a home run and two RBI...in doing so, he became the first player in major league history to throw a complete-game shutout and hit a home run in his ML debut...he was the first big league pitcher to throw a complete-game shutout in his debut since the Rockies' own Mark Brownson blanked the Astros July 21, 1998 in Houston and he joined Brownson as the only two Rockies to debut with a CG shutout...Jennings is the 75th player in ML history to debut with a shutout and only the third since 1992, when Pedro Astacio (then of the Dodgers) shutout the Phillies on July 3, 1992...Jason is just the fifth Rockie to win his starting debut, joining Marcus Moore (7/9/93), Mark Thompson (7/26/94), Bryan Rekar (7/19/95) and Brownson (7/21/98)...it was the third complete-game shutout by a Rockies pitcher in 2001 and 12th total in franchise history...John Thomson would cash in for the 13th on Sept. 30...Jason is one of only nine other NL rookies to throw a complete-game in 2001...the bat he used (Juan Uribe model) was sent to the Baseball Hall-of-Fame in Cooperstown, NY...overall, in seven big league starts, Jennings was 4-1 with a 4.58 ERA (39.1 ip, 20 er)...three of his wins came at night where he was 3-0 with a 2.84 ERA...on the road, he was 4-0 with a 2.51 ERA (32.1 ip, 9 er)...Jason followed up his grand debut with two more wins in as many starts...his scoreless innings streak to begin his career reached 13.0 innings as he finally allowed his first major league run to score in the fifth inning of his second start on Aug. 29 at Los Angeles...the streak matched a club season high...pitched six innings at Dodger Stadium in that second start, giving up eight hits and two earned runs in getting his second straight win...he joined Bryan Rekar, who won his first three (July 19-29, 1995), as the only pitchers in club history to win their first two starts...he then tied Rekar as he won his third game in as many starts, beating the Giants at San Francisco on Labor Day, Sept. 3...Jennings threw seven innings, allowing just three hits and one earned run...he became just the sixth pitcher in the majors to win his first three starts since 1993 and first since Philadelphia's Randy Wolf in 1999...fell short in his bid to become the first Rockie to win his first four starts, suffering his first career loss in his home debut, Sept. 8 vs. San Francisco (5.2 ip, 9 h, 4 er)...after beginning his career in brilliant fashion, 3-0, 1.23 ERA (22.0 ip, 3 er) in his first three games, Jennings struggled in his next three starts...in starts vs. SF (Sept. 8), at Montreal (Sept. 21) and vs. San Diego (Sept. 27), Jennings allowed 18 earned runs in 11.1 innings (14.29 ERA)...pitched 4.1 against the Expos, giving up six earned runs...followed that up with his shortest stint as

★ THE NON-ROSTER LEAP ★

On 40 occasions, a non-roster invitee has made Colorado's big-league club over the course of the year. Eleven players have left spring training as part of the Opening-Day roster. In 1999, the Rockies tied their '93 franchise record by bringing seven non-roster players to the majors. But the club had never brought that many to Denver without a non-roster player in uniform on Opening Day. In 2000, the club left Tucson with a non-roster player for the first time in three years. In fact, the Rockies in their 2000 Opening Day clubhouse had two non-roster invitees, the most since the inaugural '93 season.

1999: Dennys made a career-high 65 appearances and a personal-best 61.2 innings…was leading all NL relievers in ERA (1.69) entering his game on Sept. 3 at Philadelphia…allowed four runs in just a third of an inning that game and went on to post a 9.00 ERA in his last 14 games…made his first 41 appearances in relief (2.01 ERA) before making his only start in a 9-1 loss July 28 at Los Angeles (2.2 ip, 5 h, 6 er)…take away his start on 7/28 and his 9/3 relief appearance and his season-ending 3.79 ERA drops to 2.45…defeated Arizona on May 4 for his first career relief win…converted 2-of-3 save appearances…earned his first career save on July 3 vs. Houston, throwing a season-high 3.0 innings and tying his season high with five strikeouts…earned his second career save on Sept. 27 vs. St. Louis, striking out the only batter faced (Eli Marrero)…gave up five homers on the year, four solo.

1998: Played for four teams in the 1998 season, Los Angeles and Cincinnati and both of their Triple A affiliates…combined in 18 major league games, he was 3-5 with a 4.54 in 10 starts and 9 relief appearances…started the season with the Dodgers' Class AAA Albuquerque before being promoted to LA in May...went 0-4, 4.71 in 11 games and 3 starts for the Dodgers…traded to Cincinnati on July 4 and reported to Indianapolis…recalled on Aug. 1 and was with the Reds for the remainder of the year…from Aug. 2-30, he won three games in six decisions, the longest winning streak of his career...debuted for the Reds on Aug. 2 at Florida at 21 years, 3 months and 14 days, becoming the youngest player to appear for the Reds since Willie Greene debuted on 9/1/92 at 20 years, 11 months, 8 days…in defeating the Marlins, he became the youngest pitcher to win in his debut since Rosario Rodriguez on 9/1/89 (20 yrs, 55 days) and the youngest starter since Mario Soto debuted on 7/21/77 (21 yrs, 9 days)...struck out a career-high 12 batters on Aug. 20 at Pittsburgh...it was also a Reds season high...following his Sept. 5 start, left the club with permission to visit his ill wife, Clauvia, and newborn child, Dennys Alejandro, in Mexico...missed his last four scheduled starts...returned for the last week of the season.

1997: Named Dodgers Minor League Pitcher of the Year after combining for 11 wins at San Antonio (AA) and Albuquerque (AAA)...was promoted on July 13 and recorded the win in his Major League debut that day vs. San Francisco (6.0 ip, 4 h, 3 er, 4 bb, 6K)...debuted at 20 years and 85 days old, the youngest pitcher in the majors leagues at that time and the second-youngest player overall...only Atlanta's CF Andruw Jones was younger (by 4 days)...became the fourth-youngest LA Dodgers pitcher to start a game, behind only Joe Moeller (19 years, 2 months in 1962), Dick Calmus (19 years, 7 months in 1963) and Mike Kekich (20 years, 2 months in 1965)...in that debut, he became the first Dodgers lefthander to start a game since Bob Ojeda on 9/24/92, snapping LA's Major League record streak of 681 consecutive starts by a righthander...his stolen base in his ML debut was the first by a Dodgers pitcher since Orel Hershiser on 5/8/94 at SF...suffered his first loss in his second start on July 18, a 4-1 defeat at Atlanta...was optioned back to Albuquerque on July 25 when Ismael Valdes was reinstated from the 15-day disabled list...recalled again on Aug. 22...returned to Albuquerque on Aug. 28...was recalled for the third time on Sept. 2...made his last eight appearances in relief (0-1, 2.63).

1996: At San Bernadino, he ranked sixth among Class A pitchers and eighth among all full-season minor league pitchers with 176 strikeouts (166 ip)...his punchout total led all Dodger farmhands.

1995: Spent most of season with the Mexico City Reds but also threw for Vero Beach (A).

1994: Rated as the fourth-best prospect in the Pioneer League by Baseball America...combined to go 9-5 with a 4.90 at Rookie Great Falls and Class A Vero Beach...finished 10th in the Pioneer League in ERA.

PERSONAL: Dennys Velarde Reyes...he and his wife, Clauvia, have a son, Dennys Alejandro...his father, Juan Reyes, was a first baseman for Dodgers scout Mike Brito's Mexican League team in Guaymas in 1985...according to legend, Dennys was the team's bat boy and one day told Brito he wanted to play for the Dodgers, "just like Fernando Valenzuela"...the story has it that Brito kiddingly told Reyes that he only signs lefthanders and that Reyes then learned to throw lefthanded, mostly because his right clavicle is higher than his left...Brito signed him to a Dodgers contract on July 5, 1993.

JOHN THOMSON 52

★ RIGHT-HANDED PITCHER ★

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 190 B/T: R/R Age: 28
Born: Oct. 1, 1973 in Vicksburg, Miss.
Residence: Sulphur, La.
Major League Service: 4.061
Contract: First year of a one-year contract, through 2002

SELECTED in the seventh round of the 1993 June draft.

CAREER: The 2002 season is Thomson's 10th year in the Rockies system...no other current player has been in the organization for a longer period of time...of the current roster, only Larry Walker and Todd Helton have more service time in a Colorado uniform...in franchise history, John is tied for first in shutouts (2), ranks second in complete games (6), and is fifth in both strikeouts (314) and innings pitched (483.2)...he finished strong last season as he bounced back from shoulder surgery to go 4-2 with a 3.62 ERA over his final 11 starts.

2001: The former seventh round draft pick completed his fourth season with the Rockies...in 14 starts, he was 4-5 with a 4.04 ERA (93.2 ip, 42 er), with 25 walks, 68 strikeouts and one complete-game shutout...had two different stints with the Rockies ...opened 2001 at Colorado Springs (AAA) continuing to rehab his shoulder as he sat out all of 2000 following surgery to repair a torn labrum on Oct. 12, 1999...recalled by the Rockies the first time on May 12 and his start that night vs. Montreal was his first ML game since Oct. 1, 1999...after three starts (0-3, 5.68 ERA), went back on the DL May 26 and returned to Colorado Springs on another rehab...made another seven starts at AAA before his return to the Rockies active roster August 2...with the Rox, he began the year 0-3 before going on the disabled list and then lost his next two starts after returning...it marked 10 consecutive losses, dating back to August 21, 1999, the longest losing streak of his career and a new club record for consecutive losses...the streak also included eight straight starts with a loss (9/19/99 thru 8/8/01), the longest losing streak in starts during his career...the L's didn't completely reflect how he was pitching...two of his losses came in low scoring, one-run decisions: (1-0 loss to Florida on May 19 and a 2-1 loss to Chicago on Aug. 8)...broke the streak for his first win of the season on August 19 vs. Florida (7.0 ip, 6 h, 2 er)...it was his first ML victory in two years, since he beat Montreal, Aug. 15, 1999...after he got the first victory under his belt, Thomson had a handful of dominating performances down the stretch, including his second career complete-game shutout and two near misses as well...from his Aug. 19th start on, he was 3-0 with a 3.35 ERA (21 er, 56.1 ip), with 17 walks and 49 strikeouts...averaged just over seven innings per outing...left with the lead in three of his four no-decisions during the last two months...Thomson tossed his second career complete-game shutout on the last home game of the season, Sept. 30 vs. Milwaukee...in his nine complete innings, he allowed five hits with three walks and one hit batsmen, while striking out nine...retired the first 11 batters and allowed just one runner as far as third...it marked the fourth complete-game shutout by the Rockies in 2001 and just the 13th complete-game shutout by a Rockies pitcher in franchise history...it was only the 12th time a pitcher has tossed a CG shutout in the history of Coors Field and only the fifth time by a Colorado hurler...he joins Mark Thompson (8/6/96 vs FLA), Roger Bailey (5/4/97 vs PHI), Brian Bohanon (8/28/99 vs PHI) and Mike Hampton (5/9/01 vs NYM) as the only Rox pitchers to do it at Coors...it had been over four years since Thomson's inaugural shutout, Aug. 6, 1997 at New York's Shea Stadium...prior to his blanking the Brewers, Thomson had two other near misses of his second career complete-game shutout...on Sept. 5 vs Los Angeles, Thomson was just two outs away from a shutout against the Dodgers...he gave up a lead walk to Dave Hansen and after a strikeout, gave up an RBI double to Mark Grudzielanek...Thomson was taken out of the game and the bullpen gave up six runs in an eventual 7-2 loss...held the Giants to no runs through seven complete on his Aug. 31st start at Pac Bell...he then gave up a two-run homer to Barry Bonds in the top of the eighth...Rockies and Thomson did win the game, 5-2...in the season finale on Oct. 7 at San Diego, John struck out a career-high 12 batters (previous high was 11, June 4, 1998 vs. Arizona)....at the plate, John hit .241 for the Rockies (7-for-29) with one RBI and six sacrifice hits...went 3-for-4 with an RBI single during his shutout on Sept. 30 vs the Brewers...also hit his first career triple that afternoon, which was the first triple by a Rockies pitcher since Pedro Astacio on 9/6/99.

2000: The Rockies kept him on the 60-day disabled list the entire season after undergoing surgery at the end of the 1999 season...began a light throwing program just before camp, and continued the routine into extended spring training contests against White Sox and D'backs players...in June, he began his first official rehab stop, with the Rockies' rookie-league club in Tucson, where he made three starts...closed with another rehab start with Portland, in the Northwest League, then returned to Denver.

1999: Colorado's No. 5 starter, he made his '99 debut at Los Angeles, April 9 and sustained the loss...postponements wiped out his next two starts, April 14 vs. San Diego (snow) and April 21 vs. Montreal (Columbine High School tragedy), two of Colorado's five postponements in April...Colorado then skipped John twice in the rotation...had his first career relief appearance, April 23 at San Francisco (2.0 scoreless ip)...after 18 days between starts, returned to the rotation April 27 at St. Louis (left after 2.0 ip, tying the shortest start of his career)...went 0-3 over his next three starts, and including his last four decisions of 1998, had eight consecutive losing decisions...after his start May 12 vs. New York (2.2 innings), Colorado optioned him to Colorado Springs (AAA)...was on the minor league DL for a blister on his right middle finger...made five starts for the Sky Sox, before rejoining the Rockies Aug. 14...in his first start after his recall, Aug.15 (Game 1) vs. Montreal (7.0 ip, 6 h, 2 er), he didn't allow a runner past first until the sixth inning, and earned his first and only win of the year...on Sept. 7 at Olympic Stadium, he went 7.0 innings on four hits in a losing cause...against Kevin Brown and the Dodgers at Coors on Sept. 19, he took another loss; Thomson received a complete game in the rain-shortened contest, moving into a second-place tie (five CG) on the franchise's all-time list...his teammates averaged only 3.4 runs per start, and in four of his 13 starts, the Rockies gave him two runs or less...on Oct. 12 in Birmingham, Ala., Dr. James Andrews successfully repaired a torn labrum in Thomson's right shoulder; the next day, Andrews operated on John's blister-prone right finger.

1998: In Thomson's first full season, he finished with a career-high eight wins, despite missing a month with a blister on his right middle finger...the only starter with an ERA under 5.00, Thomson held opponents to a staff-low .282 average...on the road he was 5-6 with a 3.45 ERA...most of his problems arose in four outings (0-4, 16.1 ip, 32 er)...in his other 22 starts, he was 8-7 with a 3.36 ERA (144.2 ip, 54 er)...the No. 2 starter won his April 1 debut at Arizona, combining on a shutout (8.0 ip, 3 h, 4 K)...on June 4 vs. Arizona he tossed his season's first complete game, fanning a career-high 11 and allowing one walk on four hits...a severe blister on his right middle finger kept him from his June 20 start vs. LA and the club placed him on the DL (retroactive to June 16)...he did not return until July 26, spending 40 days on the DL and missing 34 games...won three straight games over four starts, Aug. 6-23...on Aug. 6 at Pittsburgh, he earned his second CG of the year, allowing just four hits and one run.

1997: Opened the year at Colorado Springs (AAA) but by the end of the season he was a key component in the Rockies starting rotation...in his final Triple-A outing he struck out 14 in 7.0 innings at Tucson May 5...called up May 9 by the Rockies, he made his major league debut May 11 at Philadelphia and was charged with the 3-1 loss, despite seven Ks in 7.0 innings...he then allowed three earned runs in his next two starts (11.2 innings), but still came away with two more losses, dropping to 0-3...notched his first big-league win, at Florida June 1; he tossed a seven-hit complete game with two walks and six strikeouts, and helped his cause by going 4-for-4 (a single-game record hit total for a Rockies pitcher) with three RBI...fanned eight vs. Chicago July 27, pitching 8.0 shutout innings to earn the victory...threw his first career complete-game shutout, Aug. 6 at New York, a four-hitter in which he allowed only two Mets as far as second base.

1996: Pitching for Double-A New Haven, John earned a spot in the All-Star Game and a promotion with his May performance: 5-1 with a 2.08 ERA...in his Triple-A debut July 12, he went 8.0 shutout innings, fanning seven in a win...during his four victories he compiled a 0.93 ERA.

1995: Thomson got his first Double-A experience...recorded a season-best nine strikeouts in Game 1 of the Eastern League championship series.

1994: Started the year in Asheville (A) but finished with Central Valley (A-advanced).

1993: Thomson signed with the Rockies and reported to Chandler in the Arizona Rookie League.

COLLEGE: He attended McNeese State for a year, then went to Blinn Junior College in Brenham, Texas, where he was when the Rockies selected him in the '93 draft.

PERSONAL: John Carl Thomson...is married (Kelly)...a 1991 graduate of Sulphur (La.) High School and still makes his winter home in Sulphur, La....signed by Dar Cox of the Rockies.

Postseason: Went 3-for-4 with an RBI in his only start in Game 4 vs. Atlanta.

1998: Played 79 games at shortstop, third base and second base and made only three errors (212 chances) at the three positions...hit .353 (6-for-17) in July and had a season-high five game hitting streak July 2-25 (.400, 6-for-15)...had the game-winning single in the bottom of the ninth on July 20 vs. Colorado.

1997: Came to Houston on a waiver claim from the Mets at the end of spring training...started off slow, batting .136 (3-for-22) in April and .231 (3-for-13) in May...he then went on to start 15 games in June and batted .271 (13-for-48) during the month...in July, he started 22 of the 24 games he played in...did not commit an error from May 10-July 24, a span of 42 errorless games...suffered a fractured ulnar bone in his left forearm after being hit by a pitch from Pat Rapp on Sept. 4 at San Francisco and did not play again.

1996: Started all four infield positions...made just one error all season and had a .994 fielding percentage in 166 total chances...led the National League with 23 pinch-running appearances...in an exhibition game on May 9 vs. the Mets' AAA affiliate Norfolk, he played all nine positions.

2001 Season-in-Review

QUICKLY: The Rockies finished their ninth season of baseball in the Mile High City with a 73-89 record...the club was 41-40 at home, the sixth time Colorado has finished better than .500 for the year at Coors Field...in the first six seasons at Coors, Rox finished under .500 only once (1999)...Rockies were 32-49 on the road, just the sixth best road mark in club history.

STUCK IN THE MIDDLE: Colorado could not overcome a difficult slump during midseason...Rox were 36-32 the morning of June 18, five-and-a-half games out of first place...from that day on, the club lost 23 of their next 27 games and 35-of-45...they did bounce back to post winning months in August (14-13) and September (12-11) and were victorious in 23 of their last 42 games.

FIRST POSTPONEMENT SINCE WWII: Major League Baseball postponed all games from Sept. 11-16, after the terrorist strikes on New York, Washington D.C and Pennsylvania...it was the first league-wide postponement since World War II...the Rockies were in Arizona that week to play the Diamondbacks and stayed in Phoenix for two days until the airports re-opened and they were able to get a flight to Denver.

DIALING 900: Rockies scored 923 runs in 2001, becoming the first club in National League history--and the first in the major leagues since the 1939 Yankees--to score 900 runs in three consecutive seasons.

ROX GO 1-2 IN BATTING RACE: Todd Helton and Larry Walker became the first pair of National League teammates to finish 1-2 in the batting race since Willie Mays and Don Mueller of the 1954 New York Giants...seven AL teammates have done it since then, most recently the Toronto trio of John Olerud, Paul Molitor and Roberto Alomar, who finished 1-2-3 in 1993.

A MONOPOLY: The Rockies and Padres have established a monopoly on the NL batting title...for 10 consecutive seasons a member of the Rockies or Padres has won the NL batting title with Walker and Helton taking the last four (Walker 1998, 1999, 2001; Helton 2000)...Tony Gwynn won the previous four (1994-97) and the year before that, in 1993, it was the Rockies' Andres Galarraga. In 1992 it was San Diego's Gary Sheffield finishing with the best batting average in the league...the last batting champ not to play for either team? Atlanta's Terry Pendleton in 1991...to take it further, over the last 15 seasons Tony Gwynn has won seven titles, Walker three, Helton one, Galarraga one, Sheffield one, Willie McGee one and Pendleton...so it has been a Padre or Rockie for 13 of the last 15 years.

ONE OF THE BEST HITTING STAFFS OF ALL-TIME: Rockies pitchers enjoyed one of the best hitting seasons by a pitching staff in major league history...

★ Rockies pitchers hit 10 home runs on the year (Hampton 7, Neagle 2, Jennings 1) becoming the first staff in the DH era--and the first in any era since the 1969 Oakland A's to hit 10 homers in one year.

★ Rox are now the seventh staff in major league history have hit 10 home runs or more in a season.

★ Mike Hampton had one of the finer individual hitting performances by a pitcher in major league history...Hampton tied the NL single-season record for home runs by a pitcher with seven...he shares the record with a pair of Dodgers: Don Newcombe (1955) and Don Drysdale (1958, 1965)...he fell two short of the ML record of nine, held by Cleveland's Wes Ferrell in 1931...Hampton had 16 RBI, the most by a pitcher since Don Robinson also had 16 with Pittsburgh in 1982.

★ Denny Neagle hit the only grand slam in the majors this year by a pitcher, clearing the bases Sept. 29 vs Milwaukee...it also marked the first-ever grand slam by a pitcher in Rockies history.

★ Brian Bohanon hit .323 (10-for-31), establishing a new club record for the highest single-season batting average by a pitcher (minimum 30 at-bats)

RECORD INDUSTRY... The Rockies set a new major league record with 2,748 total bases in 2001...the previous record was 2,741 set by the 1996 Seattle Mariners...Colorado broke its own NL record of 2,696 total bases, set by the 1999 Rockies...the 2001 Rox also set a new NL record for extra-base hits in a season with 598, breaking the previous league mark set just a year ago by both Houston and San Francisco (574)...the ML record is 607, held by the '96 Mariners.

BEST BACK-TO-BACK SEASONS EVER?: Todd Helton in 2000 and 2001 compiled two of the best back-to-back hitting seasons in major league history...

★ Helton became the first player in major league history to have back-to-back 100 extra-base hit seasons...he joins Lou Gehrig (1927, 1930) and Chuck Klein (1930, 1932) as the only players to have two seasons of 100 extra bases.

★ He became only the second hitter in NL history (Chuck Klein 1929, 1930) to total 400 or more bases in consecutive years...he is just the fourth player in ML history to reach the 400 figure in back-to-back years...only Lou Gehrig (1930, 1931), Jimmie Foxx (1932, 1933) and Klein have hit for 400 total bases in consecutive years.

★ He is now just the seventh player in major league history to record 50 doubles in consecutive seasons and just the fourth National Leaguer to do so...he is the first NL first basemen to it and just the second 1B overall (George Burns).

★ Over the last two years, Helton has more home runs (91) and RBI (293) than any player in Rockies history over a two-year span.

CIRILLO'S RECORD CORNER: Jeff Cirillo finished the season playing 85 straight games without committing an error, establishing a new single-season National League record among third basemen...he was just one game shy of tying the major league mark of 86 set by Milwaukee's Don Money from April 5 to July 16, 1974...Cirillo bested the previous NL mark of 64, held by Jim Davenport of San Francisco from May 22 to Sept. 30, 1967...Cirillo's 228 total chances accepted without an error was also a new NL record...he now sets his sights on the overall major league record for consecutive games without an error (career)...that record is owned by Pittsburgh's John Wehner, who went 99-straight errorless games over a period of nine years (Aug. 2, 1992-Sept. 29, 2000)...for the year, Cirillo led all ML third basemen with a .982 fielding percentage (386/393).

MORE STREAKS ON THE OTHER CORNER: Not to be outdone by Cirillo, Todd Helton was also outstanding on his corner of the diamond...Helton committed only two errors, topping the major leagues with a .999 fielding percentage (1425/1427) among first basemen...Helton had a streak of 71 games without an error from June 30 to Sept. 27, spanning 642 total chances...prior to that error, he went 98 games and 841 chances without an "E" on the scorecard, dating back to Sept. 10, 2000

THE 3 & 30 MILLION MARKS: The Rockies drew 3,159,385 fans to Coors Field (39,005 average), marking the ninth consecutive year Colorado has surpassed the 3 million mark in home attendance...Rockies were runners up to San Francisco for the NL home attendance title (3,307,686, a 40,835 average)...the club eclipsed 30 million in all-time home attendance on April 27 versus Cincinnati...Rox led the majors in attendance in each of its first seven years in existence (1993-99).

ANOTHER FINE APRIL FOR LARRY... Larry Walker hit 11 home runs in April for the second time in his career, as he also hit 11 in the April of his MVP season of 1997...By hitting 11 again, he became the first player in NL history to hit 11 or more homers in April, twice during their career.

SCORING STREAK: The Rockies had a nine-inning scoring streak from Sept. 23-24, the longest in the majors since June 8-9, 1996, when Pittsburgh scored in 10 straight...the Rockies already share the NL record of 14 consecutive innings with a run scored, set one month prior to the Pirates streak, May 4-7, 1999.

HISTORIC DEBUT: On Aug. 23 at Shea Stadium, rookie Jason Jennings accomplished something no other pitcher has ever done...Jennings became the first pitcher in history to toss a complete-game shutout and hit a home run in his Major League debut...Jennings allowed five hits and four walks over nine-complete against the Mets...he also went 3-for-5 at the plate with two RBI...the bat Jason used (Juan Uribe model) was sent on to the Baseball Hall-of-Fame in Cooperstown, N.Y.

CONSECUTIVE SHUTOUTS: The Rockies pitching staff threw combined shutouts on back-to-back nights at San Diego in mid-April, marking the first time in franchise history the club has posted shutouts in consecutive games...On April 18, Mike Hampton and Kane Davis blanked the Padres 8-0 (five hits) and the very next night, Denny Neagle, John Wasdin, Gabe White and Jose Jimenez combined on a six-hitter to beat SD 4-0.

THEY COME IN THREES: The Rockies led the major leagues in triples with 61, breaking the previous franchise mark for most in a single season (59 in 1993).

- ★ Both Juan Pierre and Juan Uribe tied Neifi Perez's single-season club record of 11 this season...Perez hit 11 twice, in 1999 and 2000.
- ★ Pierre and Uribe's 11 triples tied for second in the National League, trailing only Jimmy Rollins who hit 12 for Philadelphia.
- ★ Uribe hit seven during the final five weeks of the year, averaging one per every 16.0 at-bats...for comparison, the major league record holder, Owen Wilson in 1912, hit 36 triples in 583 at-bats, one every 16.2 at-bats.

ANOTHER CLUB BATTING TITLE: The Rockies extended their major league record of consecutive years leading the league in batting average...Rox hit .292 this season and have now led the NL in team batting seven straight years since 1995.

COORS MILESTONES: Colorado played in its 500th game at Coors Field on May 22 vs. Los Angeles and recorded its 300th club victory on the corner of 20th & Blake on July 23rd vs. San Francisco.

THOMSON GETS SECOND CHANCE AT SHUTOUT: John Thomson came within two outs of throwing a complete game shutout vs. Los Angeles at Coors Field on Sept. 5 before allowing two runs in the ninth and the bullpen giving up five more in an eventual 7-2 loss...but Thomson would have another shot in the home finale on Sept. 30 against Milwaukee and notched himself into the Coors Field record books...Thomson threw a five-hit complete game shutout against the Brewers, the second complete-game shutout of his career (other: Aug. 6, 1997 at NY)...just how rare was Thomson's achievement that Sunday afternoon?

- ★ It was the fourth complete-game shutout for the Rockies in 2001.
- ★ Just the 13th shutout by a Rockies pitcher in franchise history.
- ★ In the history of Coors Field, this was only the 12th time a player from either team has thrown a complete game shutout and just the fifth Rockie...he now joins Mark Thompson (8/6/96 vs FLA), Roger Bailey (5/4/97 vs PHI), Brian Bohanon (8/28/99 vs PHI) and Mike Hampton (5/9/01 vs NYM) as the only Rockies to throw a complete game shutout at Coors Field.

TRIPLE-DOUBLE: In Colorado's 11-2 win over Texas on July 14, Juan Pierre hit two triples, while Larry Walker cashed in three doubles, both tying club records...it was the seventh time a Rockie has hit two triples in a game and the 16th time a player has hit three doubles in a game.

RECORD COMEBACK: On Tony Gwynn Appreciation Day, Sept. 27, the Padres jumped out to an 8-0 lead with the Rockies batting in the bottom of the second...Colorado scored a season-high nine runs in the bottom half of that inning en route to a 13-9 comeback victory...by overcoming an eight-run deficit, the Rockies tied the franchise record for the largest comeback win in club history, with the other coming against the same Padres, June 28, 1994 at Mile High Stadium...it was the second largest comeback in the major leagues in 2001, topped only by Cleveland's 12-run comeback on August 5 against Seattle.

2001 Back-To-Back Homers

The Rockies hit back-to-back home runs 16 different times in 2001...either Todd Helton or Larry Walker were involved in all but two of the 16...Helton and Jeff Cirillo hit back-to-back shots in the ninth inning to beat Arizona on Sept. 18, marking the only major league game in 2001 that ended on back-to-back home runs... Rockies had another set of back-to-back homers earlier in that Sept. 18 game and thus hit a pair of back-to-backers in the same game for only the second time ever at Coors Field and fourth time in franchise history...here are the Rockies back-to-back shots in 2001.

The two triple plays in Rockies history

On June 13, 1998 at Los Angeles, the Dodgers turned the first triple play in Rockies history. With no outs in the fifth, and runners on first and second, Kurt Abbott dropped a sacrifice bunt attempt. Pitcher Darren Dreifort picked up the ball and threw to second to force out Neifi Perez. Shortstop Jose Vizcaino, who received Dreifort's throw, fired to first to get Abbott. Second baseman Eric Young, who was covering first, then completed the play by throwing to third to get Jamey Wright (1-6-4-5).

Then, almost exactly one year later at Coors Field, on June 14, 1999, it happened again. This one, though, was more "routine." With Edgard Clemente at-bat and runners on first and second, Giants left-hander Shawn Estes induced a hot ground ball to third. Bill Mueller fielded it, stepped on his bag to force Angel Echevarria, and gunned it to second. Jeff Kent, the second baseman, made the pivot, forcing Henry Blanco at second, before completing the play by nailing Clemente at first, thanks to J.T. Snow's stretch (5-4-3).

1995 NATIONAL LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES

In 1995, Colorado earned a trip to the postseason in the franchise's third year of play, faster than any expansion club in major-league history. The first NL wild-card entry, the Rockies posted the best winning percentage of any third-year club, .535 (77-67).

The Rockies held a lead in all four games of the National League Division Series. In Game 1, Colorado left the bases loaded in the seventh, eighth and ninth innings in an eventual 5-4 loss. In Game 2, the Rockies took a 4-3 lead into the ninth, only to give up four runs in the top half and lost 7-4. Game Three in Atlanta was the site of the franchise's first-ever playoff win, a 7-5 victory in 10 innings. The Rox scored two in the top of the 10th, both coming with two outs on back-to-back RBI singles by Andres Galarraga and Vinny Castilla. Atlanta won the fourth and final game, 10-4 to eliminate the Rockies. The Braves went on to win the World Series.

Dante Bichette hit .588 (10-for-17) in the series with three doubles, while Vinny Castilla batted .467 (7-for-15) with three home runs and six RBI. Darren Holmes got the lone victory.

Boyd Coffie

Minor League Field Coordinator

Boyd Coffie began his professional baseball career in 1959 when he signed out of college with the New York Yankees. He reached AAA Richmond in 1961 before serving his country in the army. Upon his return, he embarked on a 29-year collegiate coaching career at Rollins College in Winter Park, Fla. There, Coffie spent 10 seasons as a baseball assistant and his last 19 as the head coach. During his time at Rollins, Coffie also coached basketball (the head coach for both sports in 1972), and managed Orlando in the Minnesota Twins organization, and Auburn (N.Y.) of the New York-Penn League. Coffie also played four seasons at Rollins (1955-58), and the school retired his No. 1 jersey, the first jersey retirement in school history. WAYNE HAGIN

Radio Announcer

Wayne Hagin has been the lead broadcaster on the Rockies radio network since the beginning of the franchise. His familiar voice has become synonymous with Colorado baseball and is believed to be the only person who has witnessed all 1,395 regular season games.

Hagin, 46, was named the 2000 Colorado Sportscaster of the Year by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association. In 1998, Rockies players voted him the Players Choice Denver Media Man of the Year.

This marks Hagin's 20th season of broadcasting major league baseball, a career that began with the Oakland Athletics in 1981. In addition to the A's, the Denver native was a member of the San Francisco Giants and the Chicago White Sox broadcast teams before coming to Colorado. His work with the Rockies' has afforded him other network opportunities, including broadcasting the 2000 National League Division Series for ESPN.

Hagin played collegiately at San Diego State, then was an original at ESPN in 1979. He was mikeside for the network's first-ever baseball telecasts. Hagin has also called ESPN College Basketball and the NBA's Golden State Warriors television.

Wayne and his wife, Valerie, have two sons, Austin and Taylor, and reside in Littleton, Colo. The family is active in the community, working with the D.A.R.E. Program and the Make-A-Wish Foundation.

JEFF KINGERY

Radio Announcer

Jeff Kingery, who has been in the Rockies radio booth since the team began play in 1993, enters his 10th season of broadcasting major league baseball in Denver.

Fans have heard Kingery on the Denver airwaves for more than 20 years. He came to Colorado to call the old Denver Bears, including their American Association championship year, 1981. He then spent 11 seasons as the voice of the Denver Nuggets before joining the Rockies broadcasts.

Raised near San Francisco, he credits the dulcet tones of Dodgers' broadcaster Vin Scully as the reason for his enthusiasm.

Jeff and his wife, Meryl, make their home in Englewood, with their dog, Columbo. The Kingerys are also active in the community, working with Easter Seals and Recording for the Blind. They are also involved with the Denver Dumb Friends League. In his spare time, he plays the guitar in a Denver rock band, E.K.G.

DREW GOODMAN

Play-By-Play Announcer

Drew Goodman, one of the most versatile broadcasters in sports, begins his first season as the television play-by-play voice of the Rockies.

Goodman has been a part of Fox Sports Net's telecasts of the Rockies for the past six years, hosting the Rockies Pre-Game Report as well as Rockies Weekly With Buddy Bell. His MLB experience also includes play-by-play for several of FSN's national games.

In addition to his baseball duties, Goodman works with almost every other sports team in the Rocky Mountain Region. He just completed his eighth season as the play-by-play announcer for the Denver Nuggets. He has also served as studio host for the Colorado Avalanche telecasts the last six seasons. In the fall, the 38-year old calls Big 12 national and regional football games for Fox Sports Net.

The last two years, he has done play-by-play for Broncos' preseason games on KOA Radio and NFL regular season games for Fox Sports. He has hosted various talk shows for KOA and KKFN Radio, including a five-year run as host of the Denver Broncos post-game show. In 1993, he was hired by NBC to work play-by-play for NFL broadcasts.

Goodman's resume does not just include the four major sports. He called tennis action for Prime Sports' (now Fox Sports Net) initial year of ATP tour coverage in 1990. In the fall of 1993, he did the play-by-play for the first ever ATP tennis event, the Bejing Open. For eight years, Goodman covered men's and women's World Cup and pro ski racing for ESPN and has also been involved with the coverage of track & field, gymnastics, wrestling and golf.

The New York native is a 1985 graduate of Ithaca College, where he lettered in baseball. He and his wife, Kristi, are actively involved in Colorado Youth at Risk, an organization that helps re-direct the lives of troubled teens. They have two sons, Jacob (3) and Zachary (1).

GEORGE FRAZIER

Internet Media

Only licensees of Major League Baseball Enterprises have exclusive rights to simulate accounts, descriptions or pitch-by-pitch reproductions of Major League Baseball games on the Internet. No transmission by any other media, specifically including the Internet and any other online network, of any information about the game, including (but not limited to) any account, description, picture, video, audio, reproduction or other information concerning any MLB game will be permitted to originate from inside the ballpark (including from a camera feed already positioned within the ballpark). Reproduction of such accounts without a license from Major League Baseball Enterprises is a violation of the policies of MLB and the Colorado Rockies. A breach in such policy will result in revocation of credentials, and may be subject to litigation.

Live Transmissions

Affiliations not licensed by MLB and non-rightsholders of the Colorado Rockies and MLB (television, radio and internet sites) are prohibited from providing live telecasts, radio broadcasts, game simulations, pitch-by-pitch accounts, as well as from using live or taped material originating from inside the ballpark during a period commencing with the conclusion of batting practice and ending with the conclusion of the game. Live transmissions will be permitted until the conclusion of the club's rightsholder's (radio or television) post-game programming. RADIO STATIONS AND ASSIGNED CORRESPONDENTS FOR OUT-OF-TOWN REPORTS ARE PERMITTED TO GIVE INNING OR HALF-INNING SCORE UPDATES; HOWEVER AT NO TIME CAN THEY FILE REPORTS ONCE PLAY IS IN PROGRESS.

Roving Cameras

Any camera light in the seating area of the ballpark is strictly prohibited. If a photo light comes on during the game, umpires will stop play. Still photographers must shoot from either one of the photo bays (first- and third-base bags). With prior approval from the Rockies PR department., still photogs may shoot from the TV camera wells located in the outfield along the baselines & along the upper deck, space permitting. Interviews within the ballpark during the game may only be conducted on the concourse between innings, not in the stands while the game is in progress.

Working Press Box

Seating in the lower press box is prioritized by daily print media, visiting public relations departments, visiting beat writers and area radio and television representatives not on the air during games. The upper press box consists of two television booths and four radio booths for live broadcasts. Keeping with MLB and club policy, no person under 18 is permitted into the press box on game days. Alcoholic beverages are prohibited from the working press box (upper and lower) prior to the game or while the game is in progress.

Field Access

All members of the media with credentials allowing them access onto the field may conduct interviews at specific times prior to the start of the game. The field must be cleared 50 minutes before the beginning of the game. At no time are media permitted in fair territory or anywhere outside of the first- or third-base bags. Alcoholic beverages are prohibited from the field at all times. There is no access from behind home plate; please use the tunnels from dugout to clubhouse.

Batting Practice

Members of the media are prohibited from standing, photographing or conducting interviews from the circle of dirt surrounding the cage while batting practice for either team is in progress.

Cellular Phones

The use of cellular phones for radio interviews while on the field and in the clubhouse is strictly prohibited. Any and all telephone interviews must be arranged in advance with the Rockies Public Relations Department. An exception to the usage of a cellular phone for an interview is in the dugout, only after receiving advance permission from the player or staff member to be interviewed. All other telephone interviews must be arranged through the Rockies Public Relations Department.

Media Phones

Members of the press can make toll-free calls or use their calling cards on any of the 10 designated phones provided by the Rockies in the press box. These phones are installed for the use of all media in the press box for working conditions only. If members of the media feel there are not enough lines available, they should contact Qwest representative Jeff Tietz at 800/301-9220 or FAX at 800/705-3307 to install their own line for use during the season.

Clubhouse Access

Members of the media must have a SPECIFIC working purpose to gain admittance to the clubhouse. The clubhouse will be closed 50 minutes prior to the start of the game. It will re-open up to 10 minutes after the game. Access to the visiting Coors Field clubhouse will be determined by the visiting club's policies.

Autographs

Credentialed members of the media are strictly prohibited from requesting autographs or equipment on the field, in the dugout or in the clubhouse. Officials will revoke credentials immediately, no exceptions.

Ticket Requests

The maximum ticket request by a member of the media is four per affiliation, per series (one affiliate may request eight tickets for a homestand of two opponents). Ticket requests must be made a minimum of 48 hours in advance of the game in question. Requests will be accepted on letterhead and must be made by the affiliation's sports producer, director or editor. It is the requesting party's responsibility to confirm receipt of the request by the Rockies PR Department, as well as to confirm approval/denial of the said request. If media tickets are not picked up without prior notice of an inability to do so to the Rockies PR Department, the affiliation's ticket privileges will be revoked. Media tickets are a limited quantity per game. The Rockies PR Department may also help media purchase tickets over the phone with a credit card, and the tickets will be available at the media will-call window. Media tickets are generally available for pick up one hour in advance of the start of the game. Media tickets are not guaranteed unless specifically approved by a member of the Rockies PR staff.

Mile High Stadium / Attendance Records

Coors Field closed the curtain on a brief but very memorable two-year stint in Mile High Stadium. In 135 dates at Mile High, the Rockies drew 7,701,861 fans (57,051 per game).

After drawing 4,483,350 in the '93 inaugural, the Rockies were on pace to shatter that mark in '94, averaging 58,598 through 56 home dates, which would have put the season ending mark at 4,687,840. Despite the year's abrupt end, in two seasons the Rockies had 52 occasions when better than 60,000 paid to watch baseball; 21 times the crowd eclipsed 70,000.

Despite the '94 work stoppage, the Rockies still managed to break four of their own attendance marks.

Rockies Charities

The Colorado Rockies have two charities, the Colorado Rockies Baseball Club Foundation and the Colorado Rockies Charity Fund, a fund of the Robert R. McCormick Tribune Foundation, both of which continue to be two of the club's biggest priorities. Rockies' Charities work to raise funds for, and promote programs focusing on underprivileged and at-risk youth.

Over the past 10 years, the Colorado Rockies Charity Fund, the Colorado Rockies Foundation and the club in general have combined to raise more than $10 million in community contributions.

Every season the Rockies donate tickets to more than 150 non-profit organizations throughout the region. The team distributed 125,000 tickets last season, and over one million since the club's inception.

The Rockies Charity Fund was formed in 1993 to benefit local youth baseball and literary programs that combat alcohol and drug abuse. The Charity Fund is a partner of the Robert R. McCormick Tribune Foundation, a national charitable trust that provides significant matching monies to supplement contributions to our local community. Grants are made to applicants from non-profit 501(c)3 organizations serving and addressing the community needs.

Literary Programs

The Rockies target literacy as a major community program. The summer reading program with the Denver Public Library works with more than 14,000 children in metro Denver. Since 1997, the Rockies have supported "Breaking Barrier," a curriculum designed by Sharon Robinson, daughter of baseball legend Jackie Robinson. Sharon's nine lessons teach positive values, teamwork and fun, using interesting baseball lessons.

County Support Programs

The ball club also supports programs for the disabled and those targeting special athletes. Since 1993, the Rockies have supported the Rocky Mountain Eagles, a "beep" baseball team for the visually impaired. What's more, the Rockies sponsor a wheelchair softball team, which gets many of its members from the Colorado Paralyzed Veterans of America. The Denver organization has hosted the national championship in the sport and has paved the way for new teams throughout the country. Members of the Rockies and the community also gather each year to honor outstanding individuals in the disabled community at the Hal O'Leary Awards Dinner.

Reviving Baseball in the Inner Cities (RBI)

In 2001, the Rockies continued their involvement in the Revive Baseball in the Inner Cities (RBI) program. The program allows boys and girls 13-18 to compete in baseball locally, and often on a national level. RBI's goal is to encourage inner-city youth to focus on their eduction, and participate in baseball, thus avoiding other self-destructive options which often present themselves. National League President Leonard Coleman initiated the RBI program, which now involves nearly 10,000 participants in more than 40 cities.

The Care & Share Program

The program gives children living with serious illnesses the opportunity to be special guests at Coors Field. Care & Share participants spend time on the field before a game watching batting practice and meeting some of their favorite Rockies players. The Rockies team up with organizations including the Make-A-Wish Foundation, the Starlight Foundation and Children's Hospital to select the participants

The ROY Foundation

The entire Rockies family was deeply saddened by the passing of Michael McMorris before the 1996 season. Michael, the son of club chairman Jerry McMorris, lost a near-lifelong battle to cystic fibrosis. Inspired by Michael, many members of the Rockies organization established on their own time the R.O.Y. Foundation, a charitable wing to assist in the battle against CF. The foundation's mission is to honor the memory and courageous character of Michael and continue a long-term commitment to conquer and cure cystic fibrosis.

Wives Involvement

Rockies wives participate in a number of charitable activities during the season. Examples include, attending an ALS-Lou Gehrig's disease picnic, painting platters to help raise money for rape victims and again hosting a book and toy drive at Coors Field. Over the last five seasons, the wives have collected more than 5,000 toys and over $28,000 in cash donations for the Denver Santa Claus Shop, an annual event that generates toys and donations for underprivileged children in the area.

Players Involvement

Rockies players get involved in the community in many ways, including monthly visits to the Children's Hospital and appearances at a hearing impaired baseball clinic and school appearances. Each December, select players participate in the Colorado Ballet's popular version of the "Nutcracker." This past year, Greg Norton, Juan Pierre and Terry Shumpert danced on stage to raise money for the ballet.

The Rockies Youth Fields Program

To date, the Rockies Youth Fields Program has opened 47 fields all over the region, from Pueblo, Colo. to Cheyenne, Wyo. The program is more than actual construction. It's an ongoing process which involves scouting new locations, organizing player donations, coordinating community resources and completing each new project.

The seeds of the program are planted during player contract negotiations, when signing players are asked to contribute a portion of their salary towards a new field to be named after them.

In 1998, the Rockies made it their mission to keep the legacy of the major league All-Star Game alive in the community. One of those endeavors was Coca-Cola All-Star Park in Lakewood, Colo. A replica of Coors Field on a 90-percent scale, the facility is the crown jewel of the fields program and represents the nation's premier youth baseball park. It received donations from dozens of entities, including the architects who designed Coors Field, HOK Sport.

Most fields have been photographed and displayed on a unique mural in the service level near the visiting clubhouse at Coors Field.

The following is a list of fields opened or under construction since the program began in 1995. In 2002, Mike Hampton, Todd Helton and Denny Neagle will be opening fields.

(NOTE—These figures DO NOT determine the Rawlings Gold Glove, selected by managers and coaches).

Rookie Rule: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (1) exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues, or (2) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-man roster (excluding time in military service).

The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit. A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one half inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from the game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

Waiver Regulations: From 30 days after the start of the season, players are available for claiming off waivers in reverse order of standings, at the time waivers expire. Otherwise players are available for claiming off waivers in reverse order of standings at the close of the the preceding season. With respect to trades, no waivers are necessary from 5 p.m., eastern time, the day after the scheduled end of the regular season through July 31. Waivers are necessary from August 1 through the day after the scheduled end of the regular season.

Earned Runs

An earned run is a run for which the pitcher is held accountable. In determining earned runs, the inning should be reconstructed without the errors (which include catcher's interference) and passed balls, and the benefit of the doubt should always be given to the pitcher in determining which bases would have been reached by errorless play. For the purpose of determining earned runs, an intentional base on balls, regardless of the circumstances, shall be construed in exactly the same manner as any other base on balls.

(a) An earned run shall be charged every time a runner reaches home by the aid of safe hits, sacrifice bunts, a sacrifice fly, stolen bases, putouts, fielder's choices, bases on balls, hit batters, balks or wild pitches (including a wild pitch on third strike which permits a batter to reach first base) before fielding chances have been offered to put out the offensive team. For the purpose of this rule, a defensive interference penalty shall be construed as a fielding chance. (1) A wild pitch is solely the pitcher's fault, and contributes to an earned run just as a base on balls or a balk.

(b) No run shall be earned when scored by a runner who reaches first base (1) on a hit or otherwise after his time at bat is prolonged by a muffed foul fly; (2) because of interference or obstruction or (3) because of any fielding error.

(c) No run shall be earned when scored by a runner whose life is prolonged by an error, if such runner would have been put out by errorless play.

(d) No run shall be earned when the runner's advance is aided by an error, a passed ball, or defensive interference or obstruction, if the scorer judges that the run would not have scored without the aid of such misplay.

(e) An error by a pitcher is treated exactly the same as an error by any other fielder in computing earned runs.

(f) Whenever a fielding error occurs, the pitcher shall be given the benefit of the doubt in determining to which bases any runners would have advanced had the fielding of the defensive team been errorless.

(g) When pitchers are changed during an inning, the relief pitcher shall not be charged with any run (earned or unearned) scored by a runner who was on base at the time he entered the game, nor for runs scored by any runner who reaches base on a fielder's choice which puts out a runner left on base by the preceding pitcher. NOTE: It is the intent of this rule to charge each pitcher with the number of runners he put on base, rather than with the individual runners. When a pitcher puts runners on base, and is relieved, he shall be charged with all runs subsequently scored up to and including the number of runners he left on base when he left the game, unless such runners are put out without action by the batter, i.e., caught stealing, picked off base, or called out for interference when a batter runner does not reach first base on the play. EXCEPTION: P1 walks A, and is relieved by P2. P2 allows B to single, but A is out trying for third. B takes second on the throw. C singles, scoring B. Charge run to P2.

(h) A relief pitcher shall not be held accountable when the first batter to whom he pitches reaches first base on four called balls if such batter has a decided advantage in the ball and strike count when pitchers are changed.

(1) If, when pitchers are changed, the count is 2 balls, no strike, 2 balls, 1 strike, 3 balls, no strike, 3 balls, 1 strike, 3 balls, 2 strikes, and the batter gets a base on balls, charge that batter and the base on balls to the preceding pitcher, not to the relief pitcher.

(2) Any other action by such batter, such as reaching base on a hit, an error, a fielder's choice, a force out, or being touched by a pitched ball, shall cause such a batter to be charged to the relief pitcher. NOTE: The provisions of 10.18 (h) (2) shall not be construed as affecting or conflicting with the provisions of 10.18 (g).

(3) If, when pitchers are changed, the count is 2 balls, 2 strikes, 1 ball, 2 strikes, 1 ball, 1 strike, 1 ball, no strike, no ball, 2 strikes, no ball, 1 strike, charge that batter and his actions to the relief pitcher.
